

SANDHILLS QUILTERS GUILD

BUS TRIP TO RALEIGH

QuiltCon 2024 is coming to the Raleigh Convention Center in February 2024. QuiltCon is the largest event in the country for modern quilts. It is an opportunity to explore unique and unusual quilts and will be held on the East Coast this year.

(there will be vendors for those who need to shop for “accessories)

Debbie Wick, Roberta Tozier and I are planning a bus trip but need to know early enough if there is sufficient interest to book a bus for this event.

Date: Saturday February 24th, 2024

It will be an all-day trip: leaving in the morning for Raleigh with arrival close to 10 AM and leaving Raleigh about 5PM.

For those who did not already sign up (or were unable to attend the April Tuesday Guild meeting) to express an interest in going, please email me or contact Debbie or Roberta (see the book for their information):
pstack01@centurylink.net

If you have a friend that might be interested in going you can sign them up but they will go on a wait list. Guild members have preference.

This trip depends on interest and enough to pay for a bus.

Cost will depend on the number going. Details will be provided later this year and will depend on the number attending.

Guild funds will not be used for this event.
